

The Massachusetts Registry of Motor Vehicles will no longer mail out change of address labels.

You may use any plain label with your address handwritten on it as long as it fits in the designated area on the back of your license or ID. You may also use a pre-printed address label such as those you use for your return address on your bills, etc.

Place label here.

